LOT 2606

An early 20th century forty-eight button concertina by Lachenal & Co, London, the ebonized ends with plated metal keys, maker's label and serial number, within a leather 'C. Wheatstone & Co' case.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

2606. Apart from some surface wear to the ends, the condition appears to be ok. No holes to bellows, and buttons seem to be working. However, we cannot comment on the playing condition as no one here can play it!
