

LOT 1002

A Chinese Canton export silver goblet by Hoaching, the 'U' shaped bowl decorated in relief with dense bamboo beneath a simulated bamboo rim, applied with a shield shaped plaque inscribed 'Celestial Cup won by Magir 19 June 1866', raised on a simulated bamboo stem and circular foot, maker's mark of Hoaching to rim of foot, height 19cm, weight 321.5g, within a silk lined fitted case, the sliding cover with applied Hoaching paper label.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1002. Goblet in good condition, with no significant damage or repairs. Decoration good and crisp. Marks slightly rubbed/obscured but readable.
Box ok, but sliding cover is damaged.

Created: Fri, 6th November 2026 15:23