

LOT 1096

Two Chinese famille rose decorated porcelain tea caddies, late Qing dynasty/early Republic period, one of hexagonal form, painted with two maidens opposing black text, iron red seal mark to base, height 14cm, the other of leaf shaped outline, painted with two birds and flowers opposing lines of black text, iron red seal mark to base, height 14.5cm, with wood covers (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1096. Both caddies in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical light surface scratches to glaze and minor wear to enamels.

Created: Tue, 10th November 2026 11:38