

LOT 1148

A Korean inlaid celadon glazed bottle vase, probably Goryeo dynasty, the pear shaped body and slightly flared narrow neck decorated with four cranes in flight and vapours below a four-line band to neck, height 22cm (chip to rim).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1148. Chip to rim, light crazing to glaze and there is misfiring to glaze, predominantly on the lower third of the body.

Created: Tue, 10th November 2026 12:04