

LOT 1055

A Chinese turquoise ground cloisonné bowl, Ming style but probably late Qing dynasty, of flared circular form, the interior decorated with four horses flying amidst vapours above waves, the exterior with prunus, bamboo and pine, height 14cm, diameter 28.8cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1055 - Good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Good vibrant colours.

Created: Wed, 11th November 2026 13:01