

Antiquarian and Collectors' Books / Tue, 20th February 2018 / Lot 3025

LOT 3025

NEW NATURALIST LIBRARY. - John BUXTON. The Redstart. London: Collins, 1950. No. 2 of the New Naturalist Monograph series, first edition, 8vo (208 x 144mm.) Colour frontispiece by Eric Hosking. (Faint stamp to rear-free endpaper.) Original green cloth, dust-jacket (price-clipped). - And nineteen other volumes from the New Naturalist Monograph series (14 with dust-jackets.) Note: 'The Badger' contains an a.l.s from the author, 2 festive cards, and is signed by Ernest Neal to the front-free endpaper (20).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

3025. 'The Redstart' is price-clipped, as is 'Ants'. 'The Mole' has a gift inscription and price-clipped. One copy of 'The Trout' is ex-library, slight spotting to the spine of 'The Trout' (other copy). Overall, a smart and attractive set with minimal shelf wear to the dust-jackets.

Created: Mon, 19th February 2018 14:52