LOT 2570

A pair of 19th century French pressed and cast brass three light wall sconces with cherub head mounts, width 30cm, together with a hanging clear glass ceiling light with coronet mount and a pair of late 19th century brass gas wall lights of foliate scrolling form (converted to electricity). Provenance: from the estate of the late Nellie Lenson-Smith (1928-2017).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

2570. Gas wall lights - they have been wired for electricity and have bulb fittings but they still retain their shade holders. Condition is quite good with just some uneven surface patina and scuffs. Cherub wall lights - they have not been wired for electricity and are quite delicate and fragile but are also in reasonable condition.
