

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 19th April 2018 / Lot 1468

LOT 1468

A bell shaped glass smoke shade, early 19th century, with top loop for suspension, height 20cm, a similar smaller example, seven others of flattened circular shape and a group of other glassware, including two milchglass polychrome enamelled tankards (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1468. Jug - crack and repair to handle. Engraved jug - crack to base of handle, otherwise good condition. Large circular bowl - small chips to rim. Cut glass footed bowl - small chip to rim, otherwise good. Cut glass jar - lacking cover, chip to foot and small chips to rim. Both wine glass mugs - badly damaged and repaired. All shades in generally good order, few very minor chips.

Created: Wed, 18th April 2018 10:29