

Jewellery / Wednesday, 13th June 2018 / Lot 469

LOT 469

An Art Nouveau silver and enamelled pendant of scrolling form, decorated with blue, green and lime green enamel, the back detailed 'Solid Silver', length 5cm, a plique-à-jour enamelled circular pendant, detailed '1870 1915', a silver bracelet with a heart shaped padlock clasp, another bracelet and a silver pendant cross, Birmingham 1900.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

469. Art Nouveau pendant: there is a chip to the bottom of the pendant. The small blue enameled drop is also chipped. There are a few surface marks to the back of the pendant. Plique a jour pendant: there are one or two hair cracks to the enamel but generally in quite good condition. The centre of the cross is not properly joined to the thistles at either side.

Created: Thu, 7th June 2018 11:52