

Jewellery / Wednesday, 13th June 2018 / Lot 650

LOT 650

A gold and silver diamond oval hinged bangle, circa 1900, the front mounted with three rows of cushion shaped diamonds graduating in size to the centre, on a snap clasp, fitted with a safety chain, inside width 5.5cm, with a case.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

650. The diamonds are attractive white stones with one or two internal inclusions. In overall good condition with a nice tight hinge. The case is in quite good condition. Weight 23.5g.

Created: Thu, 7th June 2018 12:24