LOT 1154

A Japanese Satsuma earthenware trumpet vase by Shouzan for Kinkozan, Meiji period, painted with a black bird perched on a branch against a pale greenish cream ground, within gilt borders, iron red artist's seal near to base and black and gilt signature to base, height 22cm (body crack visible to interior).

Estimate: £500 - £700

Condition Report

1154. Exterior - good condition, two tiny chips to footrim, minor wear to gilt. Unfortunately the interior is heavily crazed and appears to have a few hairline cracks, but these are only evident from the inside as they do not come through to be seen on the outside.
