

Objects of Virtù / Friday, 13th July 2018 / Lot 2439

LOT 2439

A 19th century hardstone head and shoulders portrait bust of a classical maiden, mounted on a copper pedestal and a banded agate chamfered rectangular base, height 13cm, mounted within a Skinner & Co, London, red leather case.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

2439. Repaired section to back of right shoulder, the section looks to have been broken out and re-glued, this section is approx 2.5cm x 2.5cm. Otherwise bust has typical minor chips but no other significant damage. Column and base are in good condition. Red leather case is missing its metal clasp but otherwise in generally good order with typical scuffs etc.

Created: Tue, 10th July 2018 12:28