LOT 2164

A large late Victorian mahogany extending dining table, the top with a double winding mechanism and four extra leaves, raised on carved scrolling legs, height 74cm, overall length 355cm, depth 147cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2164. Length extended 357cm. Length closed 168cm. The solid mahogany top has some overall minor scuffs and marks and is probably a little highly polished depending on preference. The extending mechanism is substantial and strong, working well with two opposing winding screws. Scuffs and few very minor chips to the edges of the carved legs.
