LOT 4001

A late Victorian Gothic Revival oak square occasional table, in the manner of A.W.N. Pugin, the crossbanded and parquetry veneered top above carved and pierced tracery brackets, raised on turned legs united by an 'X' framed base with carved leaf feet, height 66cm, width 57cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

4001. General condition is fairly good, having some small chips and loss to the square collars on the tops of the supports, other more minor chips and surface wear. Some cleaned off remnants of brown paint to outer edges of top. Otherwise minor wear commensurate with its age.
