LOT 4005

A pair of rare Chinese famille rose enameled export porcelain bird groups, Qianlong period, each modelled with two lavender and black finches perched amongst rocks, fruiting and blossoming peach tree and blossoming prunus branch, on a naturalistic green washed oval base, height 16.5cm and 14.7cm (minor faults and restoration). Note: a similarly modelled single figure is illustrated by Elinor Gordon in 'Collecting Chinese Export Porcelain', 1977, page 97, plate 84.

Estimate: £3,000 - £5,000

Condition Report

4005. Overall both in good condition with typical minor losses to relief detail, i.e., predominantly the petals and leaves.

Taller example - No significant damage. Top end of main branch with minor restoration.

Shorter example - The bird at the top has been broken off and re-glued. Minor restoration to top end of main branch.
