LOT 4021

A Chinese export porcelain urn and cover, late Qianlong period, the body moulded in relief with opposing blue and gilt ovals above bellflower swags, flanked by a pair of gilt pistol handles, on a similarly decorated circular foot, height 35cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

4021. Good condition overall with no cracks or restoration. A few tiny chips to circumference of one oval frame, otherwise minor wear to gilding, slightly more pronounced on handles and beading to rim. Cover in good order but almost totally absent of gilding.
