

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4049

LOT 4049

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain jar, Qianlong period, the baluster body painted with opposing leaf shaped panels, each filled with deer, red capped crane and pine, flanked by smaller landscape or flower vignettes, all reserved against a pink ground filled with peonies and tendrils, beneath a blue ground ruyi head and lappet collar filled with flowers and scrolls, unmarked, height 35.5cm, with carved and pierced hardwood cover.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

4049. Very minor bruised hairline to top edge of rim, typical minor wear to enamels, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Wooden cover has a small split to outer edge.

Created: Fri, 2nd November 2018 21:58