

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4056

LOT 4056

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain teapot and cover, Yongzheng period, the low bellied body painted with precious emblem, fruit and flower pendants beneath a ruyi collar filled with flowers on a red whorl ground, repeated on the domed cover, height 11cm (chip to spout and glaze loss to finial).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

4056. 3cm hairline to rim, hairline to lower handle terminal emanating from firing crack, couple of minor chips to tip of spout. Cover has glaze loss to finial.

Created: Fri, 2nd November 2018 22:06