

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4121

LOT 4121

A near set of three Chinese blue and white export porcelain vases, Kangxi period, each moulded ovoid body painted with vertical arched panels of Long Elizias and flowerpots, on a turned circular foot, heights 11.8cm to 12.2cm (crack to neck of one and lacking covers).

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

4121. Each lacking cover.

First - hairline cracks to rim of one and slight glaze blemish between vertical panels - a manufacturing issue.

Second - in good condition with some fritting to glaze on bladed knob.

Third - in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:35