

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4187

LOT 4187

A Continental faience Toby jug, probably French, late 19th century, modelled seated holding a glass in his right hand and a jug in his left, wearing a green jacket and yellow trousers on a naturalistic base, blue painted 'FT' monogram to base, height 31cm (chip to side edge of base). Note: a similarly marked example was sold at Toovey's, 24th May 2006, Lot 1411.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

4187. Approx 8cm long by 2cm wide filled section to base. Approx 1cm square flat glaze chip to left edge of base and minor glaze nick to front edge of base. Minute graze to front tip of hat and knuckle of left index finger.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:55