LOT 4197

An unusual Dutch Delft tea caddy and cover, late 18th century, of rectangular section with canted corners and rounded shoulders, polychrome enamelled to each side with figures in a landscape setting against an iron red ground filled with famille rose chinoiserie style flowers and foliage around a circular portrait of a lady wearing a hat to each side, unmarked, height 16.5cm (faults and repairs). Note: a similar example was sold at Lyon & Turnbull, 8th May 2010, Lot 118.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

4197. Approx one fifth section of cover broken away in one piece but available with the lot, there is a tiny spot of glaze loss along the break line and some typical minor fritting to the edge of the cover. Caddy with extensive fritted chipping to footrim and neck rim and U-shaped glued repair to neck. Otherwise in good order with minor wear to gilding.
