

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4199

LOT 4199

An unusual French flower paperweight, probably Baccarat, circa 1850, the pink open flower on a leafy stem with two buds on a spiralling latticino ground, diameter 7cm (bruise).

Estimate: £250 - £350

---

Condition Report

4199. Small bruise to side of dome near top of flower, and slightly larger bruise about halfway up dome near top of flower. Otherwise in good condition with typical light surface scratches. Small manufacturing flaw to latticino near edge of one main petal.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 13:16