

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4212

LOT 4212

A cut glass sweetmeat, circa 1780, the ogee bowl cut with a geometric design beneath a scalloped rim, raised on a faceted centrally knopped stem above a domed foot with scalloped edge, height 15cm (small crack to rim), together with a similarly faceted wine glass with centrally knopped stem and scalloped rim and foot, height 17cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

4212. Sweetmeat - approx 1.5cm long vertical crack to rim of glass which also has a few inconsequential tiny nicks. Some minor abrasions to facet edges of central knop to stem. Foot ok but with some possible minor polishing.

Wine - in good condition overall, some minuscule and inconsequential nicks to top rim edge and foot.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 13:19