

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1146

LOT 1146

Two 'clobbered' Chinese export porcelain bowls, 18th century, both later embellished in red and green enamels, one exterior with a band of parrots perched in hoops and branches, the other with flower baskets and scattered flowers on a carved floral ground, diameters 15cm (minor rim chips), together with a group of four Chinese export porcelain bowls, Qianlong period, and a blue and white porcelain circular saucer dish, painted with deer and pine, diameter 17.3cm (some faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1146. Clobbered parrot bowl - small rim chips and some wear to enamels of interior.

Clobbered flower basket bowl - minor rim fritting and some wear to enamels of interior.

Imari bowl - 4.5cm hairline and small chip at source, otherwise ok.

Famille rose tea bowl - chip to rim and hairline crack.

Imari tea bowl - chips to rim and hairline.

Famille rose tea bowl - minor rim chips, otherwise good condition.

Blue and white dish - 4 x hairlines to rim and numerous rim chips.

Created: Tue, 27th November 2018 12:00