

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1176

LOT 1176

A Chinese famille rose enamelled porcelain brushpot, probably Yongzheng period, of cylindrical form, one side painted with a figural scene, the other with precious objects, height 13.4cm (wear to enamels).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1176. Pot in good condition, wear to enamels, slightly matt glaze to interior. No chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Tue, 27th November 2018 12:03