

Silver and Plate / Wed, 20th February 2019 / Lot 316

LOT 316

A group of three Edwardian silver menu holders, one in the form of an owl, Chester 1905 by Sampson Mordan & Co Ltd, height 3.2cm, one in the form of a ship, Birmingham 1904 by William Manton, height 2.8cm, and one in the form of two discs, Chester 1903 by Sampson Mordan & Co Ltd, height 2.7cm, together with a silver owl mask lid, London 1895, a silver mounted glass snuff bottle and snuff spoon, London 1898 by Hukin & Heath, height 6.8cm, a silver finial, surmounted with a standing greyhound, by Edward, Edward jnr, John & William Barnard, height 4.8cm, and a crystal intaglio button, decorated with a dog wearing a collar.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

316. Owl menu holder - good condition. No significant damage or repair.

Other two menu holders - good condition.

All with good clear marks.

Crystal has typical light wear and scratches.

All other pieces in good condition.

Typical light wear and surface scratches.

Created: Mon, 18th February 2019 14:57