

Art Pottery / Friday, 22nd March 2019 / Lot 4132

LOT 4132

A Pilkington's Royal Lancastrian pottery circular bowl, 1920-38, the matt grey glazed body decorated by Gladys Rogers, monogrammed, with a wide band of stylized foliage in blue and green, impressed, painted and incised marks to base, diameter 27.5cm. Note: an applied paper label to the base of the bowl notes this piece was included in the 'Pilkington's Royal Lancastrian Pottery Exhibition' organized by Richard Dennis, 1980, as number 456.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

4132. Some very minor typical scratches to bowl interior, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 12th March 2019 12:30