LOT 1214

A Chinese famille verte porcelain trumpet beaker vase (gu), late Qing dynasty, of hexagonal section, the waisted neck and flared foot filled with panels of flowers, aquatic plants and blossoming branches, the central body painted with shou characters, all beneath a black enameled rim, height 32.3cm.

Estimate: £600 - £1,000

Condition Report

1214. The vase is in generally good condition. Typical light wear to enamels and couple of glaze scuffs/minor chips to corners of base.

There does not appear to be any damage or restoration beneath the black enameled rim, but it is slightly odd. There is typical wear and scratches to the black rim, and some minor flaking to black enamel on the corners.
