LOT 2221

A late 18th/early 19th century oak oval farmhouse table, the six plank top raised on chamfered block legs united by an 'X' framed stretcher, height 72cm, length 168cm, depth 146cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

2221. Some old marks and some scuffs to the top, as well as a few minor surface cracks. Structurally sturdy with good strong joints. Some evidence of old woodworm to underside, but mainly to softwood support bars. Appears to be fairly original with no apparent replaced pieces.
