

Prints, Maps and Posters / Wed, 14th August 2019 / Lot 46

LOT 46

Christopher Saxton - 'Cantii, Southsexiae, Surriae et Middelsexiae comitat' (Map of South East England), 16th century engraving with later hand-colouring, second state, 40cm x 54.5cm, within a gilt frame.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

46. Many repairs with overpainting or filling visible on close inspection, including a tear from Maresfeld vertically down to the coast; a hole near Warnham about 5mm in diameter, a diagonal tear to the top left corner; a tear to 'Meridies'; another tear near Eridge and Frant. By far the worst damage is to the bottom left corner where a large section is lacking and been replaced in facsimile. Old heavy creases also visible. Mounted to plate line. Unexamined out of frame. Frame with some scuffs and scratches.

Created: Fri, 9th August 2019 11:16