LOT 4082

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

4082. The wire work finial is slightly misshapen and the cover has some slight plate wear to edges as well as a very small dent to edge. The base has typical wear to the edges and some scratches to the surface. The surface has a few small nicks and edge also has a few tiny nicks.
