

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 12th September 2019 / Lot 1131

LOT 1131

A late 19th/early 20th century lacquered brass four glass mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a gong and mercury compensated pendulum, the backplate stamped with 'A.D. Mougin' maker's mark, the enamel chapter ring with black Roman numerals on a grey ground, the case with bevelled glass panels, on a plinth base with bracket feet, height 32.5cm, with winding key.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1131. Generally fairly good condition. Case has typical light surface wear and scratches. Glass panels in good order. Chapter ring in good order. Winds smoothly, but only runs for 20-30 minutes. Possibly needs a clean. Striking mechanism also in working order.

Created: Sat, 7th September 2019 09:43