

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1449

LOT 1449

A faience pottery circular plaque, probably Doulton, late 19th century, decorated by J.H. McLennan signed, with a head and shoulders portrait of a girl with frill collar, unmarked, diameter 42cm (hairline cracked).

Estimate: £300 - £400

Condition Report

1449. Approx 6cm long haircrack to rim at one o'clock, most noticeable to underside. Finely crazed overall. No restoration or chips.

Created: Wed, 30th October 2019 13:16