

Glassware / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1616

LOT 1616

Five engraved glass rummers, 19th century, including one with a continuous scene of a greyhound chasing a hare, raised on a heavy firing foot, height 13.8cm, one engraved with leaves and berries above an hexagonal waisted stem, height 18cm, and one engraved with fern leaves, height 17.5cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1616. Fern decorated glass with pinhead sized nick - more easily felt than seen - to rim. Otherwise each in good condition overall. Typical wear to undersides of feet. No 'clouding'.

Created: Mon, 2nd December 2019 10:14