

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1486

LOT 1486

A small group of decorative ceramics, 20th century, including four Royal Doulton figures, comprising The Boy Evacuee, HN3202, The Homecoming, HN3295, Auxiliary Territorial Service, HN4495, and Welcome Home, HN3299, two character jugs, a child's part tea set and a pair of Minton pin dishes, boxed.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1486. All Doulton figures are in good condition.

Shorter character jug - minor glaze flaws near base of handle.

Vase - wear to gilt ground, particularly to rim.

Child's tea set - some crazing, one saucer chipped, one cup cracked.

Commemorative mug - crazed.

Created: Mon, 2nd December 2019 10:32