

Silver and Plate / Wed, 22nd January 2020 / Lot 335

LOT 335

A George V silver gilt mounted tortoiseshell desk calendar of rectangular form with day, date and month apertures, London 1919 by J. Batson & Son, height 15cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

335. Overall good condition with some wear to edges of gilt and typical light surface scratches and wear. Base panel is a little loose. No significant damage or repairs. The top aperture for day of week is vacant and not displaying a day, so that would need attention. Good clear hallmarks.

Created: Sat, 18th January 2020 11:59