LOT 1020

A Chinese pale celadon jade carving, Qing dynasty, probably 18th century, attractively modelled as two cats lying back to back, biting into a shared lingzhi stem, the stone of greenish/grey tone, length 7.2cm.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

1020. Good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Good uniform colour, finely carved detail. There is an internal line inclusion running horizontally across the body of the larger animal but is not obviously noticeable, but does become apparent under a strong light.
