LOT 1112

A Chinese lacquer six-fold screen, early 20th century, one side inset with soapstone and gilt with scenes of figures and pavilion settings above smaller panels of birds in blossoming and fruiting branches on a black ground, within mother-of-pearl inlaid trellis borders, the reverse with gilt flowers on a red ground, 183cm x 244.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1112. Generally in fairly good decorative condition. There are the usual chips and knocks to corners with some minor re-touching and repainting to those areas, and numerous small chips/flakes to edges of each panel. Typical scuffs and scratches and usual wear all-over, some hairline surface cracks to lacquer. There is some minor loss to soapstone inlay, but only noticeable pieces are two pieces from a section of wall.
