

Studio Pottery / Friday, 20th March 2020 / Lot 4168

LOT 4168

A set of three David Lloyd Jones studio pottery stacking bowls, each of flared circular shape with pouring lip, covered in tenmoku glaze with brushwork detail, diameters 26cm, 18.5cm and 15.5cm, together with a similarly glazed David Lloyd Jones circular bowl, diameter 13cm, each with impressed seal mark (largest bowl with hairline crack).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Largest with pouring lip - approx 5cm long vertical haircrack to rim to right of pouring lip. Some stacking wear to base interior.

Middle sized stacking bowl - in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Smallest stacking bowl - in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration. Minor stacking wear.

Other bowl without pouring lip - in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Sat, 7th March 2020 10:46