

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1451

LOT 1451

A Paris porcelain botanical vase, mid-19th century, the baluster body well painted with a bird and insects amidst an assortment of flowers, leaves and berries against a pale blue ground, incised 'Veineuil' to base, height 43.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1451. Indistinct starcrack to neck approx 4cm from rim above bird, visible to the interior and exterior. Otherwise in good condition overall with no chips or restoration. The gilding to the rim and foot show typical minor wear/rubbing.

Created: Tue, 17th March 2020 10:22