

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1433

LOT 1433

A set of nine Volkstedt porcelain Meissen style monkey band figures, 20th century, including drummer and trumpeter, blue painted mark to base, heights ranging from 10.5cm to 17.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1433. Bassoonist - missing small part of top section of instrument

Horn player - glued repair to left elbow and consequently mouthpiece of horn where joined to monkey's mouth, missing small corner section of jacket.

Bagpipes - glued repair to right shoulder, poor restoration to pipe and left hand, missing small top section of pipe, minor chip to right corner of jacket.

Recorder - broken in two through legs and visibly glued with associated loss to tip of tail and end of instrument.

Conductor - both hands and tongue visibly and poorly restored. Missing baton.

Violinist - left hand and neck of violin poorly and visibly restored. Missing bow.

Cellist - right foot and bow poorly and visibly restored, missing small top section of bow and cello, which has been glued back into place. Some wear to enamels.

Trumpeter and Drummer both OK.

Created: Mon, 9th March 2020 15:20