

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Friday, 20th March 2020 / Lot 4095

LOT 4095

A Liberty & Co 'Tudric' pewter circular card tray, designed by Archibald Knox, model number '0163', circa 1905, the shallow well decorated in relief with stylized seed pods and scrolls, inset with abalone, stamped '0163' to underside, diameter 25.2cm. Note: a similar tray is illustrated in 'Archibald Knox' by Stephen A. Martin, page 203.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

4095. Dark patinated surface with some areas of light surface wear to raised points. The rim is quite misshapen in places and there is an area of dents to the left side just below the decorative motif. Otherwise an overall rippled surface to the plate.

Created: Tue, 10th March 2020 13:37