LOT 1273

A Chinese tixi lacquer seal box and cover, late Ming dynasty and later, the multi-layered cinnabar and black/brown cover and base carved in relief with inward pointed ruyi heads, diameter 7.9cm, height 4cm.

Note: base possibly a later match.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1273. Cover - generally in good condition, typical light surface scratches and minor wear but no significant damage or repairs. A bit dusty.

Base - possibly later but they are a good match, it has a metal rim and appears to have some minor re-touching to rim and edge, otherwise generally in good condition.
