

Glassware / Thursday, 13th August 2020 / Lot 1620

LOT 1620

An opalescent cranberry glass epergne, late 19th/early 20th century, the central tulip shaped vase flanked by three scroll branches hung with baskets, raised on a mirrored circular base, height 32.5cm, together with five other pieces of glassware, including an amber flashed cut glass footed bowl.

Estimate: £50 - £70

---

Condition Report

1620. Epergne - each basket has small pointed relief decoration, the tips of the majority of which are chipped. Lead edging to mirrored base is misshapen and lifting. The 3 clear hooked supports are matched as one has a gilt metal base.

Cranberry beaker - minor nicks to rim.

Coaster - ok.

Vase - ok.

Jug - ok.

Footed bowl - ok.

Created: Mon, 10th August 2020 15:49