

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 4th September 2020 / Lot 2512

LOT 2512

A Victorian papier-mâché games box, the square hinged lid inlaid in mother-of-pearl and painted with a flower spray within a gilt overlaid and mother-of-pearl inlaid border, the compartmentalized interior fitted with playing cards, 'The Pocket Whist Case' and various counters, width 25.5cm (faults to one hinge).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

2512. Some overall light surface wear and craquelure to top. Some areas of loss and hairline cracks to mother-of-pearl. The top is currently detached with some damage to body where the hinges fit. There is also a small crack to rear corner and some other minor dinks.

Created: Tue, 25th August 2020 17:20