

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1499

LOT 1499

A Foley Wileman & Co Intarsio vase, circa 1900, designed by Frederick Rhead, the bell shaped body decorated with flowers and leaves against a blue band and ochre ground, black printed factory marks to base and numerals '3037', height 10.5cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

The vase is heavily crazed all over and a lot of this crazing has a white appearance almost as though it has been compromised in some way - please use the zoom function on our website to view this clearly in more detail. There is a teeny tiny nick to the neck rim exterior and the neck rim glaze has some bubbling roughness to the interior and exterior - a manufacturing issue.

No cracks or restoration.

Created: Thu, 12th November 2020 09:27