

LOT 1580

19th November 2020

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1580

LOT 1580

A Minton's Secessionist art pottery vase, early 20th century, designed by Léon Solon and John Wadsworth, the tapering body with stylized decoration against a blue ground, black printed and impressed marks to base with incised shape number '3334', height 25cm.

Estimate: £50 - £70

---

Condition Report

1580. All over fine crazing. Staining to interior. A number of nicks and nibbles to the tubelined decoration. Small portion of tubelining was missed during manufacture on one side. Otherwise in generally good condition.

Created: Fri, 13th November 2020 16:22