

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1666

LOT 1666

A Herend Fruit and Flowers pattern service, comprising twelve plates, diameter 25.3cm, twelve plates, diameter 20.8cm, twelve plates, diameter 16.6cm, twelve dessert bowls, teapot and cover, eleven teacups and twelve saucers, blue printed and painted marks.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

The service is in VERY good condition overall - according to the vendor it was hardly used.

One cup has an indistinct hairline.

One of the 20.8cm diameter plates has some minor scratches to the decoration.

Otherwise everything is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. The enamels and gilding are good with no real signs of wear, apart from some VERY indistinct knife cuts and some minor rubbing to the handle of the teapot - which has been used as it is stained with tea.

Created: Mon, 16th November 2020 14:09