

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1589

LOT 1589

A 'Vienna' porcelain cabinet plate, late 19th century, painted with a titled scene of 'Silvie & Daphne' within a gilt overlaid rim of black, magenta and pink ground panels, underglaze blue shield mark to base with script title and impressed numerals, diameter 24.3cm (minor rubbing).

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

The plate 'rings' nicely and is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. The gilding is not worn.

There are some small spots of wear to the painted panel, e.g., to the torso of the figure by the trees. Please see the extra images on our website using the zoom function to view the detail.

Created: Tue, 17th November 2020 16:48