

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1590

LOT 1590

A 'Vienna' porcelain cabinet plate, late 19th century, painted with a titled scene of 'Penelope Eurycleia Awakened' within a rim of six pink ground panels with gilt overlaid decoration separated by burgundy ground panels, underglaze blue shield mark to base with script title, diameter 24cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

The plate 'rings' nicely and is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The gilding is good with only minor wear to the detail over the pink panels. The painting is in good order with a pinprick sized manufacturers blemish to the body of the plate amidst the skirt of the standing figure.

Please see the extra images on our website using the zoom function to view this.

Created: Tue, 17th November 2020 16:53